Question

Many aspects of the way people dress today are influenced by global fashion trends. How has global fashion become such a strong influence on people's lives? Do you think this is a positive or negative development?

Original Essay

People's dressing stylies are influenced by global fashion trends in many aspects. I completely agree with the view that it is positive for global fashion to become an influence on people's lives greatly.

With the development of society and technology, people are able to cummunicate with each other easily all over the world. Therefore, global culture and information, especially fashion, are spread around the world. For example, I am a big fan of social media, and the internet is the most useful tool for me to get the latest information that I am able to follow the global fashion trend. What's more, it is online shopping that make people search goods and order the clothes they want more easily.These are the reasons why lobal fashion become such a strong influence.

Although global fashion trends may do harm to people's lives in some case, I strongly believe it is a positive development. It is important for people to catch up with the global trend, so that people can be aware of the world's development instead of just staying alone. Following the global trend can broaden our horizon and open our mind, it is not only an item of clothing. As for me, I gain a lot of pleasure and satisfaction by trying different kinds of clothes, especially national and global fashion.So it undoubtedly plays an positive role.

In conclusion, my view is that people's lives has been influenced by global fashion greatly by the development of science and technology and the situation is definitely a positive development.
